

Applicant Brief

Hi;

This is Adil Abdalla; a highly accomplished, visionary, mission-critical, strategic and tactical senior level Executive; with focus on: Real Estate, Urban Development and Project Management industries and associated streams

The recent quest of "Happy Citizen" has lots of implications on Productivity, Participation and Polarization; equally on Culture and Life. Empowering the Municipal role is the critical solution for Urban Correctness. Therefore, my research and passion are on "Urban Management and Optimized Solutions"

A Sudanese; a native Arabic speaker; a remarkably active in the following roles; particularly at Client/Owner side:

- Thorough professional leadership in built environment, considering the convenience of products to the business and/or strategic intents.
- Contents management of urban development and real estate; with critical applications of due diligence, supply chain and regulations.
- Project, procurement and delivery management with focus on definitions, controls and risk management.
- Purify the heritage management from structural and technical bottlenecks that cripple its contributions to epistemia and economy.
- Creation and performance enhancement of corporate management, emphasizing on knowledge, sustainability and system audit.

Being in the "vibrant Dubai" for the last 25+ years had enriched my experience with multidimensional, multinational and multitasking competencies and lessons learned that are necessary for sustainable achievements

My academic theme is all about transformation of theories into practical implementations that will serve the public, the needy and the civic evolution

My diverse cultural interests and background had always enabled me to effectively engage with communities and groups at sincere ease

Looking forward

Adil